111-3. Regulations.

A. All garage sales shall be limited to daylight hours.

B. No goods shall be on display except during the hours of sale. All items not customarily used outside shall be removed from the outside area at the end of each day of a consecutive-day sale and at the end of the garage sale.

C. Items offered at the garage sale shall be limited to privately owned personal property and may not have been acquired or consigned for the purpose of resale.

D. No garage sale shall be conducted for a period in excess of two (2) consecutive days, and no person shall conduct more than two (2) garage sales within any twelve-month period.

E. There shall be no more than two (2) garage sales on the same property or premises within any twelve-month period. Garage sales conducted on the same premises shall be at least ninety (90) days apart.

F. Two (2) temporary signs, not more than four (4) square feet in size, shall be permitted indicating where the sale is to be held. No signs shall be exhibited except during the authorized hours of a sale. No signs are permitted to be attached to utility poles or traffic regulation signs or to trees in the public right-of-way.

As a condition to the issuance of this Permit, I promise in good faith that I will follow all City regulations regarding Yard Sales.
